

Position Vacancy

Head Nurse - Dialysis Care

Working Location: Yuen Long

Responsibilities:

As Head Nurse you will be responsible for co-ordinating the clinical activities of the centre and the delivery of quality care to our patients. You will take part in directing and guiding the activities of the nursing team, healthcare assistants and ancillary staff in the centre. You will be highly involved in the nursing care of renal patients, demonstrate a commitment to Continuous Quality Improvement and educational development. Liaison with key Nephrologists is expected with support provided by the FKC team.

Qualifications:

- Registered Nurse of Nursing Council of Hong Kong with a Practicing Certificate
- Renal Certificate and 10 years' experience in hemodialysis
- Strong administration, organizational and planning capabilities are required
- Good communication & excellent leadership skills
- A strong commitment to patient care and development of multi-functional team
- Good command of English and Chinese
- Computer literate with knowledge of MS-Office

No night duty and the dialysis center will be closed on Sunday. Please submit your CV with availability and expected salary to hrhk@fmc-asia.com if you are interested.

(Data collected will be treated in strict confidence and used for recruitment purposes only.)